CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1.

This Society shall be styled 'THE WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT SOCIETY,' and its object shall be the erection of a Great National Monument to the memory of Washington, at the Seat of the Federal Government.

ARTICLE 2.

The Society shall consist of all adult male contributors. The Officers of the Society shall be a President, who may be selected from the United States, without regard to residence, three Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, and Secretary, who, with thirteen members, to be chosen as hereinafter mentioned, shall constitute a Board of Managers, all of whom shall be residents of the District of Columbia, and who, with the President, shall be triennially elected by ballot by the members of the Society present at its anniversary meeting on the 22d day of February, 1835, and on the same day in every third year thereafter. The existing Officers shall hold their places until the 22d of February, 1835; and all Officers shall continue in office until others shall

ARTICLE 12.

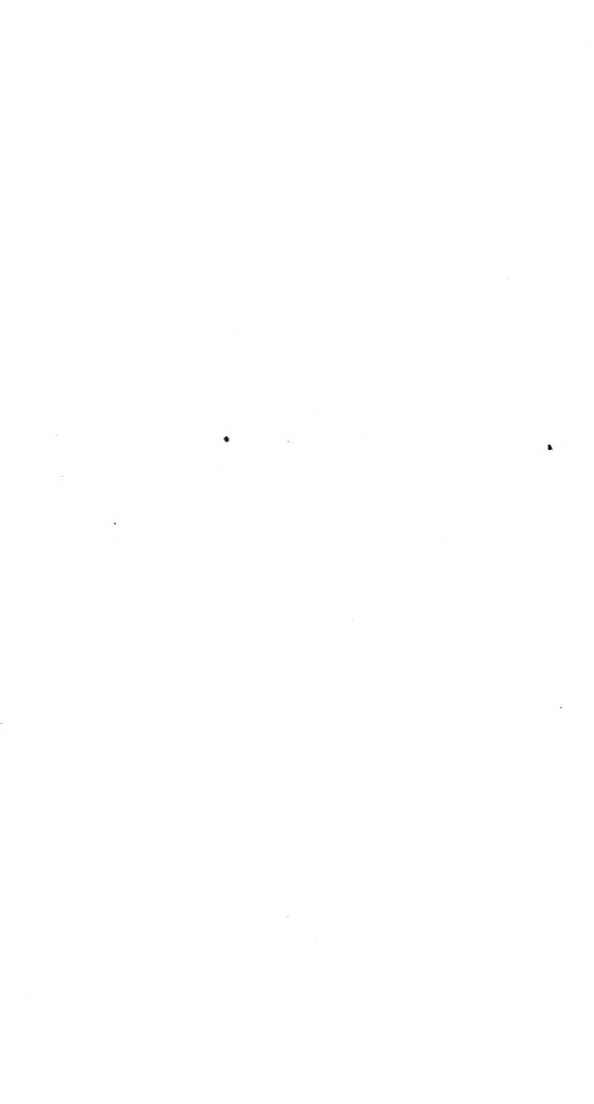

No amendment to the Constitution shall be made, except at an annual meeting of the Society, and with the concurrence of three-fourths of the members present.
